

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2358 - HB 2318

February 24, 1998

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires a person convicted of a crime to remain on probation until entire sentence is served or judgment in case paid in full, including restitution and other costs. Current law prohibits the court from extending probation beyond the statutory maximum sentence for probation which could be imposed for the offense. Requires the offender to remain on probation until restitution is completed.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures $2,208,900

Assumes 30 percent of 27,000 probationers who owe restitution will have probation extended 90 to 180 days at a cost of $2.02 per day.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director

SB 2358 - HB 2318